TFFR Plan

WHAT IS TFFR?

The Teachers' Fund for Retirement (TFFR) is a defined benefit plan for North Dakota public school educators.

Under Internal Revenue Code, it's a 401(a), a tax-exempt pension plan where benefits are defined by state law.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR TFFR?

The TFFR Board of Trustees has statutory responsibility, overseeing program administration.

The North Dakota Retirement and Investment Office manages the program.

- Retirement Services
- Investment Management

HOW IS IT FUNDED?

TFFR is funded on an actuarial reserve basis. While the members are working, contributions are invested to pay for future retirement benefits.

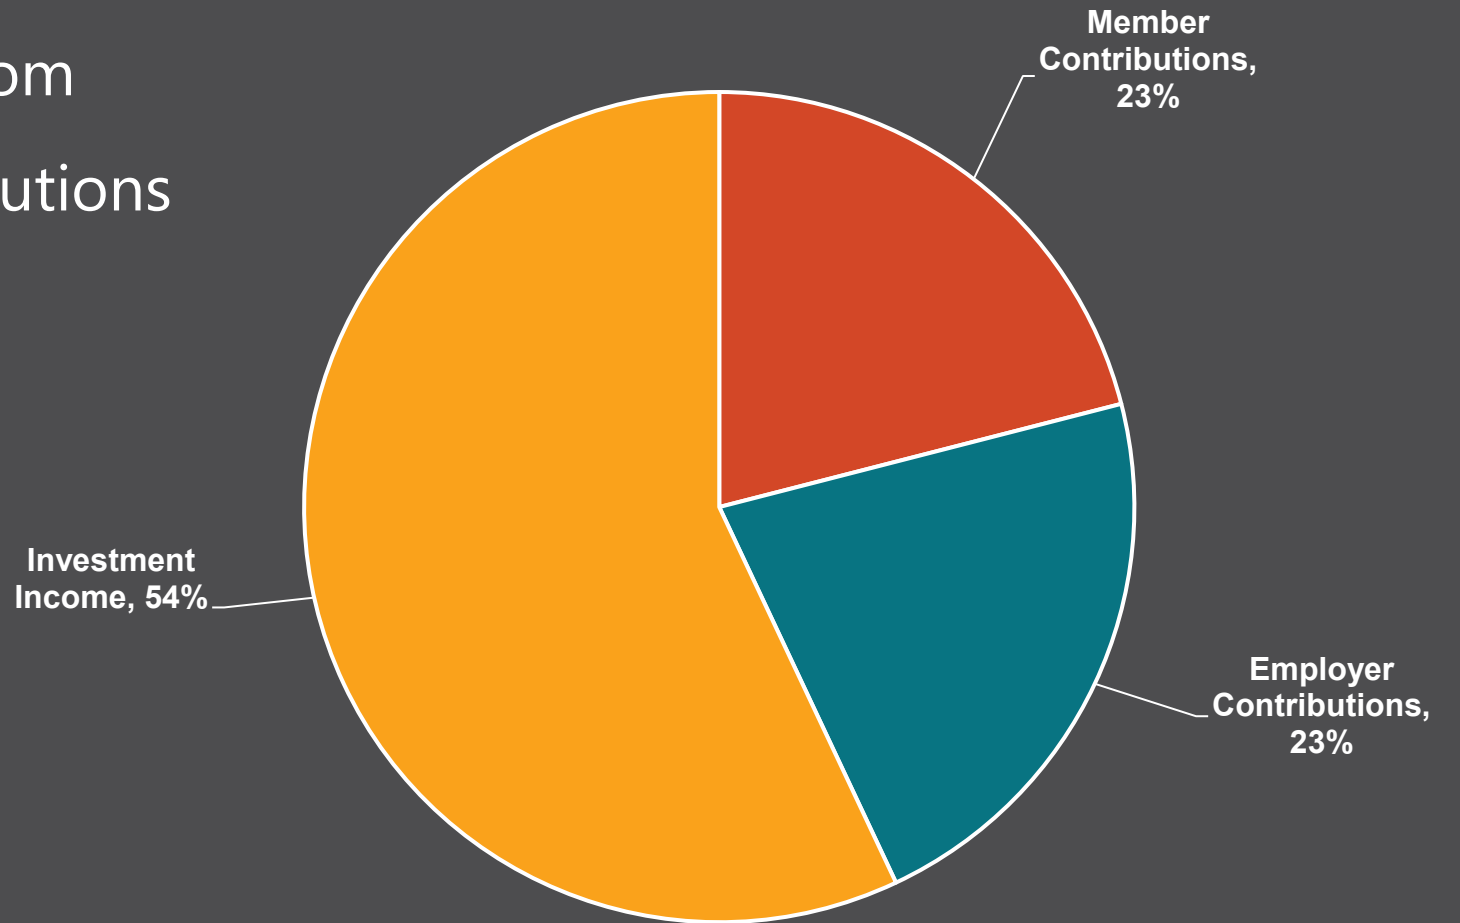

Funding comes from three sources:

- Member contributions – 11.75% of salary
- Employer contributions – 12.75% of salary
- Investment income

FUNDING SOURCES (FY 2024)

TFFR benefit funding comes from member and employer contributions and investment earnings.

DIVORCE

Former spouse (i.e., alternate payee) may:

- Receive a lump sum only if you take a refund at termination.
- Elect a monthly lifetime benefit based on your accrued benefit at divorce.
- Receive a benefit even if you continue working.

Your benefit is reduced based on the actuarial value of the alternate payee's benefit.
